

9th Annual Advancement Golf Tournament

August 22-23, 2008 • MSU Golf Course

The Tournament

On Saturday, August 23, 2008, friends of FSNHP will gather at the Mississippi State University Golf Course in Starkville to support the Department of Food Science, Nutrition and Health Promotion golf tournament advancement fund. The tournament will be held in a scramble format with a shotgun start. The tournament is limited to 60 players.

Our Mission

The Department of Food Science, Nutrition and Health Promotion at Mississippi State University is continually striving to attract outstanding students who will benefit the work force for years to come. In order to accomplish this goal, advancement funds are needed to help ensure a continual supply of well educated and well qualified graduates.

Registration Fees*
